

Job Advertisement

The German Gymnastics Federation (DTB) is looking for a

Head coach (M/F) for Trampoline

Earliest, 1st of October 2016; latest 2nd. of January 2017.

The DTB is the second largest and also the oldest association in Germany. We have more than 5 Million members in over 20.000 clubs.

Your role and responsibility:

- Preparing the athletes of the National Team (M/W) to qualify for the participation at the Olympic Games 2020 in Tokyo/JPN
- Daily training with the National Team Members in our National Training Center
- Planning and implementation of training programs, competitions and training camps
- Handle the selection procedures for high level competitions for juniors and seniors (European Championships, European Games, World Cups, World Championships etc.)
- Collaboration with different coaches, management of the different Training Centers and Officials of the DTB
- Collaboration in the coach education program within the Federation

Required profile:

- A high level of coaching brevet in Trampoline
- Experience in training of senior and junior high level gymnasts
- Good language skills in German or English (willingness to learn German)
- Knowledge of the FIG Trampoline Code of Points
- Ability to work in a team
- Pedagogical and methodological skills for high level and young gymnasts
- Computer literacy (MS Office or equivalent)

Contact:

Please send the completed letter of application until 30th of September 2016, curriculum vitae, diplomas and certificates of qualification, your salary expectation by mail to:

Deutscher Turner-Bund
Sportdirektor Wolfgang Willam wolfgang.willam@dtb-online.de

We guarantee absolute discretion in processing of your application!